SPONSORED TANDEM SKYDIVE!

CANCELLED

By now probably most of you have heard that my Tandem Skydive did not happen due to the weather conditions on the weekend of 17th September. This was the weekend when Exeter airport was flooded, Butlins sent their guests home; so it was no wonder my skydive was put off too.

I thank all those that sponsored me or have said that they will sponsor me and I can assure you that it will happen but at the moment I do not know when. It could well be that it may not happen for a while, as winter is approaching.

Sheila Cholwill

Rose Hitchings has requested that readers check their bonfires before lighting please, as this is the time that hedgehogs start their hibernation.

FISH AND CHIPS ARE COMING TO BRIDGERULE

Olly the proprietor says:-

Potters fish n things is doing the rounds in our new fish and chip van!

Following on from our lock down success from our restaurant in Bude, we wanted to bring our fish and chips to the local villages and surrounding areas of Bude! The demand has been there, you have asked and here we are!

We will be VISITING BRIDGERULE VILLAGE HALL WEEKLY EVERY THURSDAY 5.00—7.00PM. STARTING NOVEMBER 2ND.

We will be bringing plenty of Atlantic cod, Icelandic haddock, Cornish monkfish scampi and all will be battered to perfection using Cornish potatoes for our chips and will certainly have tartar sauce, mushy peas, and curry sauce.

Alongside these we will have meat and vegetarian options, with a few classic fish and chip shop specials thrown in for good measure! We will be able to cater for gluten free and dairy free diets and so we have everyone covered.

We cant wait to get out on the road and to get to know our local community's and see our regulars each week. We hope you are as excited as we are to have Fish n Things iin the comfort of your own home.

EE to stop 3G network in 2024

I have mentioned this before, but it is worth reminding some users of older smart phones, or possibly not so smart phones! EE, now part of BT will close down the 3G network server in the new year and it will affect; Apple iPhone 4, iPhone 4S, Samsung Galaxy Ace and Galaxy S3 Mini, Doro 6520, 6521 and 6620, Nokia 30, Nokia C2-01, TCL Pixi 4 and many other lesser-known brands.

These phones will still be able to connect to the internet and Wi-Fi talking may still be available on some systems, otherwise it will mean upgrading to a 4G phone.

ChatGPT can now browse the internet independently and is able to provide users with up-to-date information sourced online. Until now, the generative AI model's responses have been based on data which it had been trained to find. The updated version of the model was first being made available to its Plus and Enterprise users, but would be made available to everyone 'soon'. The update means the programme will be able to accurately discuss current affairs and provide more authoritative information to all questions submitted.

How to bypass Windows 11 TPM check with MediaCreationTool.bat

From this October, Microsoft will stop supporting Windows 10, patches and updates will no longer be downloaded, some would say "Thank Goodness" but it means the end is insight for Windows 10. The issue here is that systems built before 2017 will not instal Windows 11. The software looks for a TPM V2 chip, which is not available on older computers. This means you'll need to buy a new system.... But, installing the MediaCreationTool.bat tool lets you bypass the TPM and other hardware requirements to install Windows 11, direct from Microsoft, on to your old machine.

The MediaCreationTool.bat can be downloaded from...

<https://github.com/AveYo/MediaCreationTool.bat>

Full instructions can be followed to make the upgrade easy and according to its programmers, if the install fails windows 10 will be reinstalled without loss of data!

But backup data first and users who continue to use Windows 10 should ensure their anti-virus is working correctly as Windows 10 will be increasingly vulnerable!

BRIDGERULE COMMUNITY SHOP

As you can see after nearly nine years of not having a village store we are well on our way of getting a brand new Community Shop in Bridgerule.

Shares are still available from Georgina 01288 381089. These monies will help get the shop up & running and by purchasing some shares it will also give you a say in the running of the shop.

Alternatively any donations will be greatly appreciated.

We hope we have enough to finish the build, however with rising costs more funds are needed to complete the fitting out and to stock the shop well for our opening in the New Year.

“Come on Bridgerule you said you wanted a shop let’s dig deep and get it up and running”!

Kevin Bowditch

Members and friends of the village Coffee Club recently went on a Coach Mystery Trip. First port of call was Kernow Mill, at the gateway to Cornwall, Trerulefoot, Saltash. Here a stop for coffee and some retail therapy was made. Kernow Mill was a first for most on the coach and one we will return to.

Everyone made a comment as to where they thought we were going and eventually we drove into Wadebridge for lunch.

We then followed the coastal road passing through Port Wenn and on to Polzeath.

Finally calling into Sea View Farm

Shop, just outside Delabole for afternoon tea and cake. A lovely trip.

Neighbourhood Watch Notes

"Christmas is coming, the goose is getting fat. Please put a penny in the old man's hat". That penny would probably have been Victorian, which were still in use in pre-decimal days. Don't get scammed that coins and notes showing our late Queen Elizabeth will not be legal tender when King Charles currency comes out.

And Christmas means lots of recycling, more than usual. Please do squash plastic bottles etc so the lorry will hold greater amounts of plastic rather than empty air.

Devon and Cornwall are still the safest area in the country, confirmed by the Office of National Statistics.

However, the police continue to crack down on drug users and pushers with Operation Scorpion. If you think anyone is selling or using drugs you can phone Crimestoppers on 0800 555111 giving anonymous information. County Lines is the police operation to catch children (yes, children) who have been persuaded to offer drugs by criminals. Similarly becoming a Money Mule is what youngsters are called when used to transfer money into other accounts.

Beware also email and social media hackers. Use, if you can, 2 step verification for your email. Visit "Cyber Aware-NCSC.Gov.uk" for advice.

And don't fall for emails impersonating energy companies offering CHEAP or FREE electricity. Of course it's a scam.

If you are a victim Action Fraud is the one to contact on 0300 1232040 or "actionfraud.police.uk".

Devon County Council and Torridge District Council have help lines and information if you struggling with day to day matters. DCC is "www.devon.gov.uk" or 0345 1551015 and TDC is 01237 428700. All sorts of help is available. All my usual warnings apply now and always for the lead up to the festivities. Keep your stuff to yourself, don't leave it on view in the car. Protect your handbag and wallet and phone. Lock doors and be careful who you let into your home. No criminal is interested in you, only what they can get from you for Christmas.

And finally, on Christmas, don't drink and drive, even the morning after.

Have a good Christmas yourselves, not them.

See "devon-cornwall.police.uk"

BRIDGERULE COFFEE CLUB

A few weeks ago members and friends of Bridgerule Coffee Club travelled to Teignmouth. Time was then spent having coffee, lunch and some retail therapy.

The coach then travelled to The House of Marbles at Bovey Tracey.

Here those travelling were able to watch a member of the Teign Valley Glass Blowers make a Christmas Robin. Also on display was hundreds of marbles of varying sizes made again by the glass blowers . Gifts for every occasion were available to purchase. Afternoon tea was then enjoyed before returning home.

ROSES'S CROCHET

Rose Hitchings has been busy crocheting the Nativity scene. Chris, her husband is going to make the stable and the complete Christmas scene, will be on view at the Candlelit Carol evening .

“The Bridge, My Local”

What could be more quintessential than a village pub?
How lucky we are to have one on our doorstep.

I live just outside the village and in truth only walk down to the pub maybe twice a month to catch up with friends and find out what's going on in Bridgerule, so not a huge pubgoer by any means!

I would like to express just how much The Bridge means to me and share how it enriches my life as part of the community.

It's somewhere to:

share stories, meet up, laugh, let go, do a quiz, discover, learn, open up, build friendships, listen to music or play cards. Simply break free from the everyday.

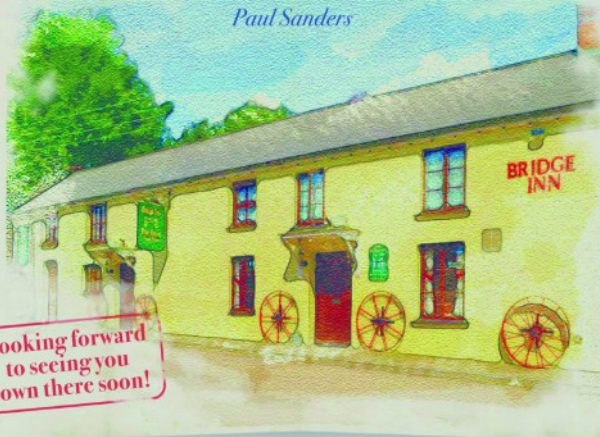

It reminds me to be reflective and identify what's important to me, and that is connecting with people, local people.

Yes, there are plenty of other ways to do this, and it's not about consuming booze! A pub gifts us the element of surprise, like meeting a proper character with a fascinating past, a chance encounter with someone you can relate to, a shared interest or even a future opportunity perhaps. Real life, real folk!

I'm happy playing pool and chatting but often find myself drifting into other interesting confabs with strangers, either way, The Bridge is somewhere I enjoy and appreciate its importance to our village.

Hence I write this, to give Pam and The Bridge Inn a massive big up! And to say thank you for keeping our local going.

Paul Sanders

GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRATIONS FOR PETER AND CLARICE

Bridgerule Village Hall was the venue recently for a very special Golden Wedding celebration.

Mr and Mrs P. Harris of Highlands celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary on 6th October after having first met at a dance in the Village Hall in 1969.

Peter had travelled to the dance by motorbike from Thurdon, Kilkhampton with his friend Neal and saw Clarice across the crowded hall. He finally plucked up the courage to ask her to dance towards the end of the evening, dancing the last waltz together.

They were married in 1973 at St Bridget's Church with the reception at The Bullers Arms, Marhamchurch. The three-course meal at the reception cost the princely sum of £1.50 per head!

Peter and Clarice began their married lives living near Tamar Lakes before moving back to Highlands Farm, Bridgerule in 1976.

Family and friends gathered to celebrate with an afternoon tea and looked through photos from the wedding. Peter and Clarice were pleased that all the bridesmaids, both ushers and the best man could join them on the day. Donations in lieu of presents amounted to £300 and have been sent to Cancer Research UK.

Ushers – Colin Cholwill and Reg Hambley

Bridesmaids – Dorothy Rich, Margaret Short, Suzanne Littlejohns,
Maria Woods

Best Man – Dave Stevens

Peter and Clarice continue to show their support to our village of Bridgerule wherever they can and we thank them.
