

Dear Readers,

Together with my daughter-in-law Stacey, we have recently opened a new facebook page which we hope you as members of our community will follow. We have named it “ Bridgerules Buzzing Community”, linking it with our Village Newsletter.

This we are sure can be another very useful resource for our village. Just tell Stacey what you would like to promote through this page and then share it with others. Her email address is shillier357@yahoo.co.uk.

Although a little premature may I take this opportunity to Wish all the readers of The Buzz a memorable Christmas and New Year. Thanking you as readers for your support and for those volunteers who very kindly deliver The Buzz through everyone's doors.

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

On a cold November Sunday morn, an old man sits a while looking though old photographs, he can't help but smile.
They're all there, all the boys,
with hair cut short and neat uniforms of khaki, strong black boots upon their feet.
They met as strangers but soon became like brothers to the end, smiling at the camera, there could be no truer friends.

They all took the Queen's shilling, went off to fight the hun, soon learnt the pain of loss once the fighting had begun.
So many never made it home, lost on foreign shores.
Many more were injured and would be the same no more.
The old man's eyes mist with tears as he remembers every face.
Each of his fallen brothers and the killing which took place.
He proudly dons his beret, his blazer and his tie,
for today he will remember the ones who fell and died.
On his chest there is a poppy, a blaze of scarlet on the blue.
He steps out into the cold, he has a duty he must do.
Once at the cenotaph he stands amongst the ranks, of those who marched to war and those who manned the tanks.
He bows his head in reverence, as the last post begins to play
And he wonders what will happen at the ending of his days.

Will anyone remember? Will anybody care?

About the lads so far from home whose life was ended there?
I wish that I could tell him, that he should fear not.

For this soldier and his brothers will NEVER be forgot.
We owe a debt of gratitude that we can never pay
And this country WILL remember them,
on each Remembrance day.

CAN YOU HELP?

Holsworthy Community College is a key part of the local area and all the main components are trying their best to promote and improve this excellent school.

Holsworthy Parent Teachers & Friends Association (PTFA) are playing their part but need more help and support to do the thing they love doing most.....providing some much needed cash for the teachers and students of HCC ! Schools nowadays need as much help as they can get and HCC is no different but sometimes just 2 or 3 people can make an amazing difference ! Anybody who feels they could give some small amounts of time to the PTFA would be very welcome and please feel free to contact the Secretary, Linda Moran on linbmoran@hotmail.com

Neighbourhood Watch Notes

The clocks have gone back and it's getting dark earlier. Now is as good a time as any to check all vehicle lights are working to help keep people safe. How many cars do you see out there with lights not working?

As you get home, draw the curtains and do lock up, you never know who's out there. Burglary or housebreaking or tools from the van, it's all the same to the crooks.

Don't worry, it never happens here - until it does! It does to someone somewhere every day - with luck not always the same person.

Most crimes are committed purely because of the opportunity offered, not thought out beforehand. So try not to give them the chance. Lock up. Keep things hidden from view - especially if you have just been Christmas shopping. You know it makes sense.

And now for something completely different.

Did you know you may qualify for a free home safety visit by the Devon and Somerset Fire Service? If you are living on your own or are elderly you can phone 0800 05 02 999 and talk to them. If eligible you will get a full review of your home safety with regards to fire, and a free smoke alarm. For rented properties all this is down to the landlord - smoke alarms on every floor; carbon monoxide alarm in rooms where solid fuel is used; gas appliances checked by registered Gas Safe engineers every year etc.

If there is a fire the best practice is to get out leaving doors closed then call 999. Lets hope non of this happens and we all have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

All dog owners know that they are supposed to clean up their dog's mess when they are out walking, and most dog owners are responsible enough to do just that. However, there still remains a proportion of dog owners who deliberately avoid cleaning up after their dogs, or will only pick up the poop if someone is watching!

Standing in dog pooh is one of the most messy, unpleasant and potentially unhealthy things that can possibly happen to an adult or a child, and nobody should be made to go through this because of other people's laziness!

Dog waste is not only foul smelling and horrible in texture, but it also carries and spreads a lot of dangerous diseases as well. Canine faeces are packed with bacteria and carry a whole range of diseases, including parvovirus, salmonella, cryptosporidium and many more, all of which can make other dogs or people very ill, and may even prove fatal. Worms are also transferred through faeces, and over time, will impregnate the ground as well, placing all other dogs that walk in the same areas at a high unnecessary risk.

Most people in our village pick up after their dog has done his or her business but sadly and very annoyingly some are not and in particular over by the river bank near to the bridge someone chooses to let their dog/s mess and think its fine to leave this potentially harmful mess on the ground.

Well, most of us do not think so and now the readers of The Buzz know where this is happening, rest assured this area is being watched by those that care and you may well be named and shamed. So do the right thing and please PICK UP YOUR DOGS POO WHEN OUT WALKING .

In Addition Torridge District Council are now reviewing the procedure they deal with Dog Fouling and how they impose penalties. So watch this space!

ZOMBIE COOKIES

If you think by blocking cookies in your Browser you'll not have any running on your computer, you are sadly mistaken or misinformed!

The hoo-ha around cookies has been brought about by EU bureaucrats' who haven't got a clue as to how the internet works!

...and they have lulled people into a false sense of security, Why? Nobody has explained to them or to you what an ETag is and how ETags work!

ETags are cookies which read your Browser cache and report back to the website you are viewing, primarily to avoid repeat downloading of data, speeding up the browser activity, saving you money and time in data download.

... but, no amount of cookie killer software can stop ETags from operating on your system and harvesting your data!

ETags can only be stopped by deleting your browser history and data caches each time you close your browser.

...so does that mean if you delete your cache, your system will be free of ETags?

... Wrong! ETags are active whilst browsing and can be designed to respawn even after deleting them! Hence the nickname "Zombie Cookies"

There has recently been a class action lawsuit in the USA, in connection with "Respawning ETags" and it's against major media Corporates such as Disney, CNN and other companies wanting to know what you do on-line!

This technology has been in use since the beginning of the World Wide Web and is used by criminals todayand you cannot stop it!

To help control them, you can browse in "private mode" or download a FREE cache cleaner off the internet. If you experience problems, Telephone: 01288 381061, for help and advice.

Belated 90th Birthday Greetings to Dennis Martyn

Dennis Martyn, who was 90 recently, moved to Borough Farm Bridgerule in 1947 at the age of 19, with his parents, Harold and Mabel. They had previously farmed at Scotland Farm on the other side of the Parish, which had been bought by his grandparents, John and Jane Martyn, after they'd sold their bakery at Week St Mary. The flour dust and heat were the cause of poor health for John and his doctor had advised a change of occupation. Borough had the advantage of an electricity supply at that time which resulted in most of the oil lamps being discarded and thrown into a pit at Scotland. In fact electricity had come to Borough just before World War 2, but only because the poles were put up down the wrong road!

The move from horse power to tractors was made soon after the war ended but the family kept a strong interest in horses, with dad being a keen competitor at gymkhanas and riding to hounds with the Tetcott Hunt along with his dad Harold. Through the 1950s and 60s the farming at Borough Farm advanced rapidly and saw the early uptake of silage as a means to conserve winter fodder - no plastic sheeting was available to cover the clamp, just a layer of lime! Pedigree herds of large white pigs and British Friesian dairy cattle were established - boars being sold to eastern European counties to improve pig breeds there.

Dennis married Mildred and together they have two sons, Jonathon and Timothy. They also have 3 grandchildren; Erin, the first Martyn girl in the family for 162 years and her brothers, Fraser and Duncan.

Dennis still enjoys the odd day out with the hounds still in the company of his friends and neighbours and 'chewing the fat', reminiscing about the huge changes he has witnessed from the Shire horses to the modern tractors now seen. If you are local and want to know your family tree he'll likely to have it all in his head for you.

BRIDGERULE HEDGE AND COPPICE GROUP

The hedge and coppice group meets once a fortnight on Saturdays through the winter months to lay hedges and coppice small areas of woodland. Most sessions yield significant amounts of firewood that are shared among participants. Beginners are paired with more experienced hands to learn as they work. The emphasis is on traditional skills and the safe use of hand tools including bill hook, axe and bow saw.

No two hedges are the same and each one offers its own challenges. Over the coming winter we shall be tackling five different projects on local farms and smallholdings. New volunteers are always welcome. For details please email

COFFEE CLUB

The Village Coffee Club travelled in beautiful weather to Truro and went on to The Chocolate Factory at Mullion recently. Afternoon tea was taken outside in the warm sunshine at Mullion. Most purchased some chocolate to take home which they had seen being made into different bars. Members saw from the coach how vast the site at Cudrose is and on the way home could see St. Michaels Mount.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Congratulations Aron and Georgina Braund on the occasion of their wedding on Friday 19th October.

The transformation to our hall for your reception was fabulous and photos of this can be seen very shortly, promoting our hall, on the Bridgerule website.

OUR LOCAL RED WINE!

You may have read a recent article in the Buzz about a new vineyard near Bridgerule, at Tackbear, producing a “light, fruity summer red” using the Rondo grape.

Red wine is our usual choice, so we decided to try some – particularly as we had friends coming the next evening, most of whom know more about wine than me. I went to Tackbear and bought a bottle.

We all thought the wine was delicious. It is not cheap, but it makes a great addition to the regional range. As our experts said, very good for a first attempt.

I have bought more bottles, because it will make an excellent and unusual gift - and be an ideal local wine when we are entertaining guests.

See paleparkvineyard.co.uk for more information.

Christopher Darwin

Congratulations!

Ian and Liz Dickson have just heard that their 2017 Rondo wine has just won a Bronze Award in the South West Vineyards Competition.

YOUR NEW SCHOOL SECRETARY TAKES HER JOB VERY SERIOUSLY EVEN WHEN SHE IS DOING HER JOBS AT HOME!

“ALL GOOD GIFTS AROUND US”

There was standing room only at Bridgerule Methodist Chapel recently for Bridgerule C of E (VC) Primary School Harvest Thanksgiving service. The pupils carers and friends were delighted to welcome 4 residents from Southlands Residential Care Home, who were able to join them for the service. Eileen, one of the Southlands visitors, had lived in Bridgerule all her life and was particularly pleased to have been invited to attend this special service, at the Chapel.

The pupils spoke about creation, read their own prayers and read a well-loved Harvest parable before telling the congregation about Harvest Celebrations in Africa, Egypt, Canada, the USA and China. Accompanied by Mrs Sheila Cholwill, on the organ, the pupils sang about “Cauliflowers fluffy” before Mother Elizabeth Burke gave a blessing prior to finishing the celebratory service with the traditional harvest hymn, “We plough the fields and scatter”.

Ms Lisa Paton, Primary Lead for the Dartmoor Multi Academy Trust thanked everyone for their wonderful efforts and the generous amount of food products brought to school, which would be donated to a local foodbank.

ALL THE WAY FROM SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA TO WALK IN THE STEPS OF BRIDGERULE'S SPECIAL LADY.

A few months ago Sheila and Rose had an email from Jacky who lives in Sydney Australia of her desire to come and walk in the steps that Elizabeth McArthur would have taken many years ago in the village of Bridgerule, where she was born in 1766. Elizabeth Macarthur and John, her husband, played an integral part in establishing Australia's wool industry and she has been referred to as Australia's first and greatest lady!

The day after Jacky and her husband Mark arrived Rose and Sheila took them to Lodgeworthy Farm, the birthplace of Elizabeth and today's owners Vivienne and David Hale. Here a delicious cream tea was enjoyed. The following day we visited The Glebe. This was where Elizabeth Macarthur spent many hours with Rev. Kingdom and his family, who were then the residents of what was the vicarage.

The top photo shows Jacky and husband Mark 2nd and 3rd from left together with the now owners of The Glebe, The Brewer Family and below it as The Glebe could have looked in Elizabeth's time. The bottom photo is the long house at Lodgeworthy where Elizabeth was born.

It is felt that this very important lady's life should be remembered in our village, by holding a special event next year and it is a wish for pupils of our local school to learn of her in their studies.

The bells of St. Bridget's Church Bridgerule will be rung at 7.05 p.m.as part of Battle's Over, an international commemoration marking 100 years since the guns fell silent at the end of World War I.

Organised by Pageantmaster Bruno Peek LVO OBE OPR, Battle's Over takes place on November 11th 2018, with events throughout the United Kingdom, Channel Islands, the Isle of Man, and at scores of locations overseas, including New Zealand, Ireland, Australia, Bermuda, France, Belgium, Canada, the United States and Germany, to name but a few.

It begins at 6am with lone pipers playing Battle's O'er, a traditional Scottish air played after a battle, outside cathedrals in the country, following which a specially written tribute will be read out. At the same time, over 1,000 pipers will be playing the tune in individual locations within their local communities.

At 6.55pm buglers will sound the Last Post at more than 1,000 locations, where at 7pm beacons will be lit in a tribute called Beacons of Light, signifying the light of peace that emerged from the darkness of four years of war.

Then at 7.05pm over 1,000 church and cathedrals will ring their bells as part of Ringin Out for Peace organised in association with the Central Council of Church Bell Ringers, which represents 65 societies of ringers from the British Isles and overseas. Also at 7.05, more than 140 town criers will perform a specially written Cry for Peace Around the World, the first of them in New Zealand and then across the globe through the various time zones.

Bridgerule Church of England Primary School – Autumn Term news.

It has been a busy first half of the Autumn term. We were delighted to welcome 9 new children to our Reception year at the start of September. We were also pleased to welcome two new members of staff to the Bridgerule team. Mrs Ali Collman is a new part time teacher and our new administrator is Mrs Stacey Hillier-Cholwill. As a parent and local resident Stacey already has a great knowledge of our school community and has made a fantastic start getting to grips with her new role.

The children have been involved in a number of projects and events in addition to their lessons. They produced some beautiful artwork for the for the WW1 commemoration event organised by Holsworthy Town Council. There have also been some great sporting events for the children already this term, Class 2 attended the first Dartmoor Multi Academy Trust Ability Games. The KS2 children also took part in a cross country festival at Holsworthy Community College and competed well against a number of other local schools.

This year we are having a strong focus on teaching and learning in Maths. One aspect of our action plan is to take part in a programme called ‘Maths Mastery’ which is a professional development opportunity for teachers across our cluster and the DMAT (Dartmoor Multi Academy Trust). The programme is already having a positive impact on Maths lessons in Bridgerule.

The staff, children and local community came together for the lovely Harvest Service. We all enjoyed the children’s singing, stories and prayers and were especially proud of the new Reception children. Thank you to everyone for the donations for the Foodbank, to Pat for making the chapel look so lovely, Shelia for providing the organ and keyboard accompaniment and Mother Elizabeth for the blessing.

On Friday we had our usual Celebration Assembly and I was delighted to be giving out so many awards for: Stars of the week, Mathematicians of the Week, Bad Eagle Awards, School Values Awards and Outstanding Attendance. Well done to all the children. Lisa Paton—Primary Lead
